

Imagining a 'Child Friendly' Lincoln

Date: 4th November | Time: 10am-4pm

Location: Isaac Newton Building, University of Lincoln

Join this family fun day to launch the Children of Lincoln project. Learn more about children's rights and 'Child Friendly Cities', and have your voice heard to help us shape the future of Lincoln.

Imagining a 'Child Friendly' Lincoln will include:

- Arts and crafts and interactive games for children and young people.
- Lincoln City Imps in the Community laser shoot out goal.
- Information on how to get involved in the Children of Lincoln project.
- Follow the treasure hunt from the city centre to find us and claim a tasty treat.
- Refreshments all day with pizza and cupcakes at lunch all free of charge.

Please email Sue Bond-Taylor at childlincoln@lincoln.ac.uk with any queries.